

INVITATION

Victorian Community History Awards 2020

Public Record Office Victoria and the Royal Historical Society of Victoria are pleased to invite you to:

The 2020 Victorian Community History Awards Announcement

This year all Victorian Community History Award winners will be announced in an online video on Wednesday 28 October at 4.30pm. We hope you will tune in for this special History Month event and announcement of the Victorian Premier's History Award and Community History Award winners.

When: 4.30pm, Wednesday 28 October 2020.

Where: The Announcement will be available to watch via the Royal Historical Society of Victoria Facebook and the Public Record Office Victoria YouTube and Facebook channels.

Who: We welcome special guest speakers The Hon. Danny Pearson, Minister for Government Services, and Catherine Andrews who will present the Victorian Premier's History Award.

RSVP: No need to RSVP! If you can't tune in on the day you can watch the announcement at any time after the 28th.

We'd love to see your reactions to the announcement at home. If you take photos or videos of yourself, friends or family watching the announcement send them through to us at media@prov.vic.gov.au or tag us on social media #VCHA2020. Join the occasion by commenting on the video on whichever channel you choose.

Visit prov.vic.gov.au or historyvictoria.org.au for more information about the Awards program.
